

The ceremony took place on November 16, 1869 in Franks parents home near Princeville, since there was no Catholic Church nearby. A priest came from some distance for this occasion, since it was to be a double wedding. Franks sister Fredericka was married at the same time to George Heinz.