

OBITUARY

Mrs. Lena Lovier Perkins was born on April 19th, 1871, at Sedalia, Ky., the daughter of Andrew J. and Alice Thurman Smith, departed this life February 6, 1945 in Mayfield Hospital.

She was united in marriage to John W. Lovier, who passed away in July 1934. To this union eight children were born, only four still living.

At an early age she was converted and joined the Methodist Church, to which she was a faithful member to the end.

Surviving are: her husband, John W. Perkins, a son, James C. Lovier, St. Louis; three daughters, Kathleen Burgess, Rosiclare, Alice Henderson, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Jan Stanford, Washington, D.C. Grandchildren, H. P. Lovier, Dallas, Tex. James C. Lovier Jr., Mt. Vernon, Ill., Cpl Jack Johnson, Somewhere in Italy, Dorothy, June, Jane and Sue Lovier, St. Louis, and Betty J. Stanford, Jacksonville, Ill., and two great grandsons, James Buel Lovier and Richard Lovier.

Four sisters, Gussey Gardner, of Murray; Mollie Estes, Dickson, Tenn., Willie Hayden, Mayfield and Ethel Melton, Detroit, Mich.

Until the death of her father in August 1944 she had five generations in her family.

Funeral was at Methodist Church, Sedalia, Ky., the Church of her childhood, on February 8. She was laid to rest in the Burnett's Chapel Cemetery. Service conducted by Rev. O. A. Stine.

She was truly a good Christian, always helping those in trouble, a kind loving mother and her many deeds and her good life will always be a shining light to her many friends and relatives.

Clipped By:

ejheinz

Sun, Dec 15, 2019