Quentin James Gilles, 76, of Portland, formerly of Kickapoo, Ill.; passed away March 8, 2011. Born Oct. 13, 1934, in Peoria, Ill., to Albert F. and Lois (McCoy) Gilles, Quentin graduated from Spaulding Catholic High School and was a U.S. Navy veteran of the Korean War. In 1955, he married Marie A. Calles and they celebrated 55 blessed years together. An engraving specialist and mold-maker at Owens-Illinois Glass Co., Quentin retired after 33 years of service. Survivors include his wife, Marie; children, Quentina, Rosalee, Martin, Jennifer and Juliette; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and his brother, David. He was preceded in death by his parents and 14 siblings. A funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Anne Catholic Church. Interment with military honors will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday, March 15, 2011, in Willamette National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the family.
